INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF "USER'S EVALUATION" FORMS

1. Please indicate, by checking "Yes" or "No" in answer to the questions on the form, your opinion of the value to your office of the document being evaluated. Your answers to the questions will indicate:

1st Question: Whether or not you wish to receive additional data on the subject(s) covered by the report.

2nd & 3rd Questions: Whether the report is of immediate or possible future value to you. A negative answer to both questions will indicate that the report is of no present or future value to your office.

4th Question: Whether you believe the report was properly prepared and clear in meaning, so far as the requirements of your office are concerned.

5th Question: Whether the subject matter was presented in a form readily usable by your office.

6th Question: Whether you believe the report included too many unrelated subjects which should have been reported in separate dispatches.

7th Question: Whether the report arrived in time to be of use to you.

8th Question: Whether the report is valuable confirmation of previous reports or merely duplication.

9th Question: Whether you believe the field office is accurate in its estimate of the reliability of its sources and credibility of its information. If you believe the field evaluation is incorrect, please explain under "Comments."

10th Question: Your opinion of the value of the report to your office. Check only in case the report concerns your work.

2. The M. I. S. will be glad to receive any constructive suggestions, and space has been provided for them. If classified information is included, the form should be appropriately classified by stamp.

3. Each "User's Evaluation" should be signed by the person evaluating the report, giving the name of his office, the date he received the document, and the date of the evaluation.

4. The evaluation will then be detached from the document it covers and forwarded to Analysis Branch, MIS, War Department, Washington 25, D.C.
